C & R-PREP.

Final calculations of sales reports have been made, and we have exceeded our state's goal for the 1965 crop year. A hard and long sales campaign has been well worth the time and effort put forth.

Cass and Richland counties lead in the number of crops sold. Cass and Hettinger counties lead in the number of acres sold for the year.

The fieldmen's reports for last week were final.

One of our original Crop Insurance agents, J. W. Miller, of Stutsman County passed away on Wednesday, May 5. Funeral services are to be held Friday, May 7, in Jamestown. We extend our deepest sympathy to the Miller family. The family residence is: 820 6th Ave. S.W.

1965 Edition No. 19

SEP 15 1966

May 19, 1965

C & R-PREP.

Sales - This will be the final 1965 sales report. We have now included the terminations for indebtedness in the figures. While our terminations are much lower than in the past, we still lost enough acres to put our increase in business for 1965 below the goal that had been established. Nevertheless, we feel that the 1965 campaign was a real success.

Acreage Reports - A few are coming in and look good. Be sure to check carefully since we have a new form and procedure to follow. When a change of address is made, you must prepare the form SO-48. Send the original to us, attach a copy to the acreage report that goes to the Branch Office and keep a copy in your file. Enter practices (column 8) only if your county has practices on the actuarial table for wheat or barley.

In the Hospital - A. P. Jorgensen due to an acute appendix that needed removing immediately. Art is in the John Moses Hospital in Minot, N. Dak.
